DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 24-68 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. Claims 24-63 and 66-68 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Digger in view of Slotznick, US 5,893,200.

Applicant is directed towards the November 23, 2004 Office Action, paragraph 2. Applicant's February 14, 2005 Amendment and REMARKS have been reviewed, but are not convincing.

Applicant has not properly traversed the Official Notice taken from the November 23, 2004 Office Action. Applicant has not affirmatively stated that the Examiners Official Notice is wrong. Applicant has only indicated that the Examiner has not provided documentary evidence to support the Official Notice assertion. These are two separate issues. As a consequence, Applicant has ceded the Official Notice.

Nonetheless, regarding the Official Notice, the Examiner affirms that the funeral planning ceremony he has been involved with, at least a decade prior to Applicant's filing date of the present application, comprised the funeral home guiding the consumer with a plurality of choices, e.g. what type of casket to place the deceased in, and customized choices, e.g. the particular kind of flower arrangements to be placed in the viewing room, the items placed in the casket, when planning the funeral ceremony. Applicant's claim language is such that it reads upon these, and similar, common knowledge practices that have been common knowledge within the funeral industry.

It is the Examiners position that, when viewing Digger in view of Slotznick and common knowledge, i.e. Official Notice cited, to have provided a computerized funeral planning ceremony would have been an obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art. The motivation for having a computer system incorporating well known funeral arrangement ceremony procedure would have been to transfer a common knowledge medium to an electronic communication system available to another set of users. Computer systems have been designed for converting routine tasks previously done by hand/voice to an electronic format.

Also, it is further noted that the term "guiding" does not provide a definition that provides a line of demarcation over Digger, as modified by Slotznick, in view of Official Notice.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
